MERRY

Padded Gilet
H&M £34.99

This winter will be more vitaminised than ever with wardrobes reinvigorated with strong, energetic colours. The most important thing is to respect your colour scheme. Neutrals create a fun illusion where its accompanying colour appears brighter. This focuses the attention on where you want it. Since bold colours highlight and bring attention to you and your figure you should wear it strategically. Enhance your favorite body parts with brights and then pair it with a neutral.

DARING

Jumpsuit
Roman £38

This season, the star of your wardrobe is not your traditional blue jeans (which we still love, mind you). It's black or dark jeans that will dress you from head to toe! Yes, this year, the total look is definitely a must. Go for the dark, powerful denim, both as trousers and as a jacket. Match the colour for a perfectly harmonious outfit and complete your look with camel accessories. This is an original monochromatic alternative full of character.

Dress H&M £24.99 • Necklace M&S £25 • Dungarees FatFace £65

QUEEN OF QUILTS

Coat
Next £55

Did you like the down jacket wave in 2020? This year, it's become an obsession! Long, quilted coats are turning heads. Combine with a cabled jumper, classic jeans and comfortable trainers for a casual look. Or with your best suit and heeled ankle boots for a stylish look (both for the office and for going out).

Coat Roman £80 • Scarf FatFace £32.50 • Jumper Crew Clothing £59

A woman with dark hair, wearing a bright pink towel wrapped around her head and shoulders, is the central figure. She is holding a clear glass bottle of 'Bubble Bath' with a gold-colored liquid inside. She has a playful expression, with a dollop of white foam on her nose. The background is a warm, golden-brown color, filled with numerous small, colorful bubbles. Surrounding the central image are various bath products: a white jar of cream, a tube of lotion, a small jar of pink salt, and some greenery with small white flowers.

THE BEAUTY EDIT

We may think our choice of beauty products can't change the world in a big way, but cumulatively, a switch as simple as swapping to plastic-free packaging could prevent tonnes of harmful materials entering our oceans and landfills throughout our lifetime. Here's our favourite little swaps from Swan Walk stores that can help you make your beauty routine more planet-friendly...

This nutty, intensely creamy Body Butter comes in recyclable packaging made with an aluminium lid and 100% recycled plastic tub, including Community Fair Trade recycled plastic from India.

SOCIAL VALUE AT SWAN WALK

At Swan Walk we believe in thinking globally, but acting locally. As we celebrate the end of this year we wanted to share with you some of our favourite moments from 2021!

- The centre was awarded a 2021 International CSR Award by The Green Organisation for our sponsored Police Car partnership project. This follows two Green Apple Awards in 2020 for the centres bee project and sustainability day.
- Swan Walk became DWP Disability Confident Level 1 accredited and will work towards Level 2 in 2022.
- Horsham District Council “Journey to Work” Youth Employment Hub opened in Swan walk supporting local young people seeking employment.
- Gill Buchanan, our Centre Manager became a registered Mental Health First Aider with more team members to be trained in 2022.
- Bird Boxes have been installed at the centre made by the team at The Butterfly Project who support local vulnerable adults.
- The centre are proud supporters of the “Your Town” initiative delivering safe places for the vulnerable in the community.
- Swan Walk once again hosted the local Royal British Legion’s pop-up Poppy Shop which helps them raise vital awareness and funds.
- The centre is home to a fully equipped Changing Places room.

- One of our two Public Access Defibrillators has already been used to save a life.
- We introduced Water Harvesting so that we can run the centre’s toilets more sustainably through collected rainwater.
- The centre’s free water bottle refill station continues to offer a more sustainable choice for customers needing refreshment.
- Bee Hives will be re-introduced to the centre’s roof at the end of 2021 to support the local eco-system.

CLASSIC CHRISTMAS CAKE

Grape Tree's Classic Christmas cake recipe is of course delicious, but, also naturally vegetarian. And, for the 2021 Christmas Cake recipe, they have included a vegan Christmas cake alternative recipe, plus a couple of options for decoration. There are no rules, make it your own, and feel the fruity festivity goodness!

If you make this in advance, you will have ticked off a major festive item from your to-do list. Bake this Christmas fruit cake in advance of the big day for all the tastiness to soak in and be perfect for your dinner table.

Ingredients

Fruit mix:

- 400g raisins
- 300g sultanas
- 150g mixed peel
- 150g glacé cherries
- 125g currants
- 100g dried apricots roughly chopped
- 100g dates pitted and chopped
- 150ml breakfast tea (no milk!) or brandy/sherry

Cake batter:

- 225g butter
- 225 soft brown sugar
- 1 tsp orange rind zest
- 1 tsp lemon rind zest
- 1 tsp vanilla essence
- 1 tsp black treacle
- 2 tbsp marmalade
- 4 large free-range eggs

Bringing it together:

- 50g pecans chopped
- 50g almonds chopped
- 1 tsp mixed spice
- ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
- 350g plain flour

Decorating:

- Marzipan
- Royal icing
- 50g pecans chopped
- 50g almonds chopped
- Apricot jam

Method

1. Wash and dry all the fruit and place in a large mixing bowl. Pour over the tea or alcohol and mix well. Cover and leave to stand overnight.
2. Line a 20-24cm round cake tin with baking paper.
3. Cream the butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add the fruit rinds, vanilla essence and marmalade and beat well.
4. Add the eggs one at a time, beating well after each one. If the mixture starts to curdle add a little of the flour.
5. In a separate dish mix together the nuts, spices and flour.
6. Fold into the cake mix the prepared fruits, alternating them with the nuts, spices and flour. Mix well.
7. Pour the mixture into the lined tin, smooth over the top and bake at 140°C for 3-4 hours. The cake is ready when a skewer inserted in the centre comes out clean.
8. When the cake has cooled take it out of the tin and wrap in greaseproof paper and then tinfoil and store in an airtight container.
9. Just before Christmas remove the wrapping and decorate how you wish. Enjoy!

Decorating

You are spoiled for choice with this festive favourite! First up is to dress the cake with pecans, almonds and glacé cherries with warm apricot jam spooned over as a glaze. But you can also cover with rich marzipan and royal icing which can be bought ready-rolled.

Vegan Alternatives

To make this a vegan recipe replace the butter with 225g of coconut oil; soft brown sugar with 225g of coconut sugar; the eggs for 4 tbsp of golden linseed soaked in 12 tbsp of water for 30 minutes.

LEFTOVER CHRISTMAS TRIFLES

By the time the turkey has been eaten and the roasted veg has been devoured, there's often very little room left for a large slice of Christmas pudding with brandy cream. Instead of chucking out your leftover festive pud, turn it into another delicious dessert like this decadent trifle that's ideal for indulging in after Christmas Day.

Ingredients

- Leftover Christmas pudding
- Chopped hazelnuts
- Pear and banana puree
- Whipped cream
- Chocolate
- Orange juice (or liquor)
- Vanilla ice cream

Recipe courtesy of

Holland & Barrett

Method

1. Using a large bowl or individual sundae glasses, assemble the Christmas pudding, puree, and ice-cream in layers beginning with a layer of Christmas pudding.
2. Pour over some orange juice or orange liqueur so it soaks through to the bottom of the bowl or glass.
3. Top the whole thing with whipped cream, chopped hazelnuts and some grated chocolate. Cover and put the trifle or mini trifles in the fridge to chill.
4. Serve it up to friends and family on Boxing Day or as an easy but tasty dessert on New Year's Eve!
